

Rates fall by roughly an order of magnitude per layer. The innermost loop runs in the actuator, not on the host.